11-12/Rope Drop/The Music/All Will See/Duck Tale

Eleven, Twelve.
Those here then—
 Hold onto Me.

Rope Drop
My rope is about to drop.

(I got an image of my head of the rope & pulley system on the stage from the Ropes Dreams, w/the bucket that was there to take me up off the stage, from 12/19/22)

In these dreams there was an outdoor amphitheater and a rope with a pulley system with weights and a bucket attached to the under side of the steel roof, and in the second one where there was tape attached to the roof I was told "you are about to be repelled up, but you must stay with me for a while, in my presence" So the rope dropping means the warfare I have been doing is almost over and I am about to be translated.

Julie is about to come up.

Some in her family to not yet believe this will occur in the human sense of "soon".

They keenly notice that other prophecies over time have had "soon" —
 And then much human/earth time passes.

I have planned & prepared for her family—
 Those that are still skeptical —
 And many other families who have people who feel the same way—
 I have planned for this.

Don't talk about it with them.
As it all unfolds, they will quickly understand—
 Because I will bring them to knowing.
Have Peace, I have it in My Hand.

Some wonder how soon are My "moments"?
How long is "around the corner"?
How long is "sooner than you think"?

I have laid out a plan. (I got the impression that this referred to the past few videos)
You wait & watch it unfold & you will know the chaos—

It will be widespread.
Do not take part in the chaos—
Just pray & I will protect & use you.
It will all come to pass.

3 The Music

(I saw the picture shoes dancing from the last video I made called 10 Important Things when God was talking about wanting to dance with us, but we have to stay in step with the Spirit.
then I heard:)

"The music.
They don't pay much attention to the music.
Only those listening notice when it changes."

(Then I saw a scene with a band playing at like a street fair or outdoor party in like a small town where everyone turns out and it's very busy. The band kept changing styles and types of music. No one noticed. They were completely ignoring it. There was something busy with a lot of people happening in front of the band. I was trying to hear the music.)

The Holy Spirit is the music.
You have to stay dialed into the music & not distracted to hear the music and adjust when it changes.

So after I complied all of this to record, after Church today, but while sitting in the middle of church I was urged to add to three more dance phases I received over time. He said they are all related.

Here they are:

3/21/23 I had a short dream about a gracious young woman in a small traditional church, with bible preaching and hymns, but she was of the age to be more attracted to a seeker friendly church with a band. The young woman kept her attendance there a secret from her friends and family. But when I found out I was very proud of her for going, for she was seeking truth even if it was at the cost of comfort. I was drawn to notice her sparkly peek-a-boo wedges, and then I said to her in the dream, "You need jazz shoes like your sister so that you can move with the Spirit."

The Lord clarified upon awakening, that the traditional church loves him very much, often does not share Him with others. Also, that they need jazz shoes, to keep up with the Spirit.

Implying they are not in step at this time.

Back in Nov 2020 I was given a charming word puzzle:

"Thanks. I love my hair. Fred Astaire."

I had to pray over this one a bit- but a few days later listening to our pastor, he dropped a Fred Astaire mention and then start singing #1 hit song in 1936 that included "Heaven, I'm in Heaven"

And then the Lord pointed me to all of this.

Thanks, is what a showman would say just before exiting the stage.

(remember my raptured of the stage dream)

I love my hair: represents not being shamed. Baldness in the Bible being slavery and in shame.

Fred Astaire represents those not in shame are raptured to heaven

I also had another dance related phrase given this Spring

"soon, we will all dance away" and upon waking I knew it was referring to the rapture.

With those added elements, reexamining the words from 5/23 regarding dancers and their need for flexibility, and needing to stay in step with the Spirit and how God wants to dance with you, but you have to keep pace with the music, and the music is about to change. And then then this one I just received on 5/27 where I was trying to hear the music, and there was chaos going on and then heard "they don't pay attention to the music" this is a strong lesson, that being in step with The Spirit and listening for when the music changes so you can apply your flexibility is needed to "dance away" into the rapture. Being focused on Christ, through the Holy Spirit & listening and keeping up will keep you out of harm and safely rapture ready.

"No Music, No Life?"

"It's more like more like Know Music, Know Life!"

All Will See

There is a General.

I have one who will be used for and by Me, against him.

All will see God is mighty.

God is God & there is no other.

People will see that I choose who I wish.

(I got the impression the person was meek)

Duck Tale

The bossy duck.

He backs into the water.

He is clueless about the war or who is to win the war.

In his selfishness all he notices is what he wants.

Will he be untouched by the war?

Will he have complication in the water?

The duck wears an inner tube.
Clearly the duck has no need for an inner tube—
 He should be able to swim.
But this selfish duck wears an inner tube.

As this ducks back into the pond in his inner tube
How are his odds, drifting in a lake while the war rages all around him?
What are his survival averages drifting in the lake?
The duck may do well at first.
In the chaos of war —

 The soldiers may not take notice of the selfish duck.
At some point this drifting duck in an inner tube—
 Will he be a target by one side or another?
If he never becomes a target, he may catch cross fire.
Certainly the selfish duck will at some point be vulnerable to being hit.
What the selfish duck cannot see is that the two sides of the war are on either side of the lake.

He is so unaware of the war that he does not notice that by being selfish & by floating in the lake as he drifts into the center of the lake he is not only a sitting duck with out any armor or weapons. But he has no Me to help him.

He also does not see this makes him more vulnerable.
If he were surrounded by a 100 other ducks he would not be so easy to notice.
But because of his isolation—
 He has no protection & no alliances.
What will become of this duck?

The duck denies to use his innate ability to swim—
 And the ability to duck down into the water which could hide him from the crossfire or aim.

What is this duck thinking?
What will happen to this duck?

Will he be a lucky duck?
Will he come out unscathed?
Or, will he catch accidental fire?
Or, will he be a target by a sadistic warrior?

The odds for the survival of the selfish duck are not high.
Could he make it?
He could.
In his lack of awareness—
 He may not do so well.

The selfish duck and his ridiculous choices are like the selfish person without God.
They are not in the war—
 Because they are not on either side—
 Just their own side.

But, they also have no support from a side like those without Christian friends who can pray.
The selfish man —
 Can he make it?
For a time he can appear to be fine, floating along in the middle of a lake.

He refuses to wear the Lord's Armor & he refuses to use his natural innate skills of being drawn to the Lord by praying or learning to War in the Spirit.
Could he change?
Yes.

Do not be like this sitting duck—
 A sitting target unaware there is a war.
 Relying on self.
 Isolated from help.
 Not being properly fit with Armor.
The odds are high that after a lovely drift, it ends poorly.
Choose a side.
Choose Me.
Get in the fight.
My Armor does not fail.

I assure you even those who are unaware of the spiritual fight will soon be able no longer to avoid that there is a fight.
Soon the dark army will rise & go after every sitting duck & take them over.
The darkness comes on the earth and has already started, will grow to the point that not one soul on the earth will be untouched.

I will have mercy on Mine.
Those who fight will leave this earth in their right time.
But, those that are selfish & unaware will be left for when the full darkness runs the world & they will overtake every soul on earth.

Choose Me before it is too late!
Choose the Lord God Almighty!
Your selfishness leads you being a target.
So easy to hit like a sitting duck floating in an inner tube in the middle of a lake.

Come to Me through My Son—
 Jesus Christ the one and only Messiah.
